

TROOP 220

PATROL PROGRAM EVALUATION

Presenting to the PLC is worth a total of 10 points.
 Presenting to the Troop is worth a total of 25 points.
 Total possible points is 35 Patrol Points

Category	5 points	3 points	1 point	0 points
Organization _____ pts	The program is very well organized and you can tell a lot of time was put in to it	The program was semi organized and a little bit of time was put in to it	The program was semi organized and not much time was put in to it	The program was complete chaos and it was thrown together at the last minute
Creativity _____ pts	A lot of creativity was used. I.E. various props used, entertaining, humorous	Some creativity was used I.E. a couple props, semi-interesting, kind of funny	Hardly any creativity used I.E. boring, have kids falling asleep	No creativity used at all
Originality _____ pts	Never been seen before, completely new	Seen a couple years ago but with a few changes	Very similar to the past years program with no changes	Very bland and seen many, many times
Informational _____ pts	Well thought out, very useful, to the point	Mostly useful with some unnecessary facts	Mainly useless facts with some that actually matter	No important facts at all.
Overall Appearance _____ pts	Very clean and precise, all lines memorized, all scouts participate	A little sloppy, most lines are memorized, almost all scouts participate	Very sloppy, all lines are read from paper; only one or two scouts participate	Complete failure, no one has any idea what they are talking about, one scout does everything

Evaluation will be done by members of the PLC (except for the Patrol presenting) and three adults chosen by the SPL. The total points will be based upon an average of all the evaluators. The average will be calculated by the SPL and the SM (or someone designated).

Date _____

Patrol Presenting _____

Presentation Theme _____

Total Points Earned _____

Evaluator's Signature _____